

Technological lock-in theories and their posterity

Scientific Seminar AGIR-ODYCEE & LEREPS, Toulouse University

With Robin COWAN (Maastricht University)

Thursday 4th July 2024

Manufacture des Tabacs, MQ 212 - "Open Space"

Coord. M-B. Magrini (Agir-Odycée) & Rachel Levy (Lereps)

9h15 Coffee welcome MQ 212

9h30-10h Presentation of the research teams “Odycee” (at INRAE) and “Lereps” (at Toulouse University) and works around technological lock-in, path-dependence in technological trajectory, knowledge systems.

10h-12h Part 1 – works of PhD students (10 min of presentation and 20 min of discussion by PhD) - MARETZ Lorine (Lereps), ZHANG Jingling (Lereps), BECHTET Noémie (Agir)

12h - 14h free time for lunch

14h-16h30 Part 2 – works from a collective book and Robin Cowan Conference

14h-14h20 M-B. Magrini et al. Presentation of a collective book on factors of inertia and one chapter « The founding theories of technological lock-in and their posterity: a critical analysis »

14h20-15h R. Cowan Conference

15h-16h00 Discussion with the participants

16h-16h30 Break

16h30-17h End of Part 1 - works of PhD students : DA SILVA AGUIAR Hippolyte (AGIR)

17h End of the seminar